Show Proposal Request

- Please submit the names, mailing addresses, e-mail addresses and phone numbers of everyone who will be regularly involved in the show.
- Write a short description of the show's format. Who will broadcast? What genre(s) of music will you play or what sorts of topics will you cover during your talk show?
- List your preference of two or three time slots for your show.
- Write a one-line description of your show for the text schedule that appears in the newspaper(s).
- Write one to three words describing your show. (e.g. "alternative country", "world music", "political talk".)
- Write two, 30-second promos for your show to be recorded and aired to promote your show. (We'll schedule a recording time after the Steering Committee approves your show.)
- State when you would like to start. Your start date should be at least two weeks after your promo has been recorded.
- Include a 10-15 minute sample CD or cassette tape of your show.
- List three or more businesses or organizations that might underwrite your show.

Submit request to Mac McIntyre via mail, e-mail or in person.
